

Sharif Rahman London-Amman Summer Study Abroad Scholarship Guidance Document

The Sharif Rahman London-Amman Summer Study Abroad Scholarship is a unique way to enrich your Peace and Conflict Resolution in London and the Middle East study abroad programme with FIE.

Students can apply for a scholarship worth $1000, the application process is broken down as follows:

1. Complete Application Form
2. Obtain recommendation from Professor or Academic Advisor
3. Compose essay titled 'The Importance of Study Abroad'
4. Send completed application to scholarships@fie.org.uk

➤ Application

The application form can be downloaded here

➤ Your Essay – ‘The Importance of Study Abroad’

Your suitability for the scholarship will be partly judged on your completion of a 2-page essay titled 'The Importance of Study Abroad'. This essay lends itself to personal reflection and opinion. The candidate can explore personal expectations; however, we also encourage broader perspectives. Your experience of and interest in peace and conflict resolution should be clearly evident.

➤ Your recommendation

You must submit a recommendation from a Professor or Academic Advisor in support of your application. This recommendation should be no more than two-pages in length and should clearly outline the following:

- o Your experience of and interest in peace and conflict resolution
- o Your previous academic accomplishments
- o Any notable extra-curricular achievements

➤ Submission

All scholarships should be submitted to scholarships@fie.org.uk for consideration.

The deadline date for the 2012 London-Amman Summer Study Abroad Scholarship is Thursday 15th March.
