

Velaj Foundation London-Amman Summer Study Abroad Scholarship Guidance Document

The Velaj Foundation London-Amman Summer Study Abroad Scholarship is a unique way to enrich your Peace and Conflict Resolution in London and the Middle East study abroad programme with FIE.

Students can apply for a scholarship worth $2000, the application process is broken down as follows:

1. Complete Application Form
2. A recommendation by a professor or an academic advisor.
3. A copy of your most recent transcript (unofficial will suffice)
4. Submission of a 1500 (minimum) word essay titled 'The Importance of studying Peace and Conflict Resolution'
5. A covering letter outlining what makes you a suitable recipient of the scholarship which is awarded on the grounds of academic merit and financial need. All completed application documents should be sent to scholarships@fie.org.uk.

➤ Application

The Application Form can be downloaded here

➤ Your recommendation

You must submit a recommendation from a Professor or Academic Advisor in support of your application. This recommendation should be no more than two-pages in length and should clearly outline the following:

- Your experience of and interest in peace and conflict resolution
- Your previous academic accomplishments
- Any notable extra-curricular achievements

➤ Your Essay – ‘The Importance of studying Peace and Conflict Resolution’

Your suitability for the scholarship will be partly judged on your completion of a 1500 (minimum) word essay titled 'The Importance of studying Peace and Conflict Resolution'. This essay lends itself to personal reflection and opinion. The candidate can explore personal expectations; however, we also encourage broader perspectives. Your experience of and interest in peace and conflict resolution should be clearly evident.

➤ Submission

All scholarships documents should be submitted to scholarships@fie.org.uk for consideration. Applications without covering letter will not be considered.

The deadline date for the 2012 London-Amman Summer Study Abroad Scholarship is Thursday 15th March.